

Hello Everyone~

Why in the world would someone named Motorcycle Mary be writing a newsletter about spending habits? To give you some information that might help you to get control of your money and to have a healthier financial future. I have taught thousands over the past few years and have had many requests for such a newsletter...something to help you keep your financial batteries charged. Not all of us have time to continually go to classes about our finances, heck some of us can't afford the money or time required. I am hoping that you can utilize this information after the kids go to bed, after you have worked 2 full time jobs to try and make ends meet...whatever you need to do to understand that you have to get control of your money...a little at a time...in the privacy of your own home without having to share your financials with anyone. Money doesn't know what to do by itself – and if you haven't been directing it where to go to...except to pay the bills, you will end up with nothing. Just remember that I don't teach what I don't know and I don't know stocks, bonds, investments, etc., but I can help you to get your finances into a recognizable form. Float around the newsletter and feel free to visit my website at www.motorcyclemary.com. There are forms there that you can download for free. I will cover subjects that are affecting so many of us in today's world and if you have any questions, please don't be afraid to email me at mary@motorcyclemary.com.
